

Because She Cares Portrait Series Portraying Twenty-Four Oregon Non Profit Women Leaders

Artist, Theresa Weil using a novel mixed media approach to a twenty-four cut paper portraiture series, showcases 24 leaders of non-profit organizations in Oregon. This exciting and innovative exhibition, titled "Because She Cares", opens in 2014. Alone, each piece represents one agency, one audience. In its entirety, this exhibition gives life to a constellation of women-led efforts that make Oregon progressive and inclusive. To learn more about the artist's work and this unique exhibit, please visit the website at becauseshecares.org.

The Northwest Down Syndrome Association of Oregon, one of the 24 non profit organizations featured, is partnering with Theresa Weil to manage funds for the promotion and outreach of "Because She Cares". Your donations will bring this exhibit to young people across the state in 2014, inspiring them to create and lead. Thanks to Angela Jarvis-Holland and NWDSA, donations are now tax deductible!
